

LION LOWDOWN

Fine, Performing, & Media Arts

At Missouri Southern, we foster the creative, those who challenge the status quo and strive to make new ideas reality.

Degree Options

Art and Design: Art Education, Design, Studio Art, Visual Art

Communications: Mass Communication, Public Relations

Language and Literature: English Education, Literary Studies, Professional/Technical Writing, Spanish, Spanish Education

Performing Arts: Keyboard Performance, Instrumental Performance, Instrumental Music Education, Music, Music Industry, Musical Theatre, Speech and Theatre Education, Theatre, Theatre Industry, Theatre Performance, Vocal Music, Vocal Music Education

IMMERSIVE LEARNING SPACES

- Art Saltzman reading room
- Digital Production studios for podcasting, green-screen and LED wall visual effects
- Ruth Koplin Broadcasting Facility (KGCS-TV, KXMS radio)
- Newsroom (Chart Newspaper)
- Media Production Lab
- Cragin Art Gallery -- 325 linear foot exhibition space
- 1,750 sq. ft. museum studies facility housing the MSSU African Art Collection
- Design lab equipped with Studio Mac workstations
- Digital Prototyping Lab with scanners, laser engraving/cutting, and 3D printers
- Jewelry/Metalsmithing, Painting, Photography, Printmaking, Sculpture metal fabrication/foundry, and Woodworking studios
- Bud Walton Black Box, 200 seat theatre
- Corley Auditorium, 400 seat ensemble venue
- Taylor Auditorium, 2,000 seat concert and theatre venue with orchestra pit and acoustic shell
- Script Library
- Scene Shop
- Costume Shop
- E.S. Phinney Hall, 3,288 sq. ft. rehearsal venue

"I did play after play and developed technique and style shaped by the faculty at Missouri Southern. I created a set of tools for me to use that I refined in grad school." - James Jordan, Hollywood Actor (As seen in Yellowstone)

