

LION LOWDOWN

Social Sciences

To study the social sciences means exploring where we've been, our place in the world now and where we're headed moving forward. It helps us become better informed on the issues facing society, and the impact of our decision-making.

Degree Options

- Social Work - BSW (CSWE)
- History - BA and BS
- Sociology - BA and BS
- Social Sciences - BS
- Combine a major with BSE programs

Certificates & Minors:

- American Studies
- Anthropology
- European Studies
- Gender Studies
- Global Black Studies
- Global Citizenship
- Latin American Studies
- Linguistics
- Public/Applied History
- Social Institutions
- Teaching English as a Foreign Language
- And much more

At Missouri Southern, our Social Sciences department faculty includes published authors and a Fulbright Scholar. It encompasses a variety of disciplines that offer exceptional educational opportunities for our students who have a wide range of future goals.

CAREER OPPORTUNITIES

- Publishing
- Journalism
- National park service
- Preservation
- Politics
- Secondary Education
- Librarian/Archivist
- Documentary editor
- Museum curator
- Writer
- Public relations
- Legal assistant
- Policy analyst
- Conservation officer
- Environmental consultant
- Law school/seminary/graduate studies
- Non-governmental organizations (NGOs)
- Social services
- Probation/parole officers
- Behavioral/mental health centers
- City management
- Urban planning
- School social worker
- Mental health provider
- Substance abuse counselor
- Case manager
- Lobbyist
- Child advocate

"The faculty and staff here didn't just educate me—they transformed me into someone I never thought I could be. I look forward to using what I've learned to make an impact on my community and to build a foundation for my children's future."

-Brian Cowles, Sr., 2024 Graduate

This is an equal opportunity employer/program. Auxiliary aids and services are available upon request to individuals with disabilities.

Missouri TTY User: 711 for Relay Missouri Services